Sub: Establishment Revenue Secretariat - Srinivasan, Sri K.R. and Krishniah Naidu Sri P - Services as Assistant Secretaries to the Commissioner of Civil Supplies to count for probation and increment in the category of Assistant Secretaries to the Government in the Revenue Department - Rules relaxed - Objection by the Accountant General.

Ref: From the Accountant General, Madras letter No.G.6. Sectt. 18 dated 7-4-1952.
From the Accountant General, Madras letter No.G.6. Sectt. 233 dated 17-5-1952.

Sri K.R. Srinivasan and Sri P. Krishniah Naidu joined the Civil Supplies Department as Superintendents in 1943 and are now the senior most Assistant Secretaries in the office of the Board of Revenue (Civil Supplies). Two of the Assistant Sedretaries in this Department who are junior to them are now engaged, one in work involving ~~xxxxxxx~~ legislation in connection with Irrigation, Malabar Tenancy and Land Revenue Reforms and the other in dealing with the complicated disciplinary enquiries conducted by the Tribunal. Legislation in respect of the former matters is on the anvil. It is desirable that these junior Assistant Secretaries showed continue to deal with these special items of work of a technical and complicated nature without being disturbed. Hence, the Government consider that the two officers in question may be retained in the Civil Supplies Department for the present.

2. With a view to protect their interests in the Revenue Secretariat, rule 4 of Class IX of the Special Rules for the Madras General Service and rule 26(c) of the Fundamental Rules were relaxed in favour of Sri K.R. Srinivasan and Sri P. Krishniah Naidu so as to enable them to count their services as Assistant Secretaries to the Commissioner of Civil Supplies towards probation and increment as Assistant Secretary to Government in the Revenue Department for the periods they would have acted in the latter posts but for their deputation to the Civil Supplies Department. The Accountant General is informed that relaxation of the provisions of rules 8 and 20(b) of the General Rules for the Madras State and subordinate Services is not necessary.
